

YOUR COMMUNITY

Every GL Homes community is meticulously designed and created for the best use of its land and the overall experience for its residents. It is imperative to know how the details of your community will be best suited for each customer. Remember, not all details are important to everyone. Your job is to uncover what makes your community special for the buyer. Knowing every element helps you depict a story that capture the interest of your customers.

How many lots are in your community?

How many homes have you sold in the community?

How many homes have you closed?

How large is the amenity center?

What are the amenities for the community? _____

Is your community considered an Active Adult Community?
or Open Community?

What are the top 3 unique characteristics about your community?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Describe the type of homes that are being built. _____

The base price in your community ranges from:

to

The A/C square footage in your community ranges

to

What is the Monthly HOA, and what does it include? _____